

Application for Luther Seminary Arts & Innovation Fellowships

Luther Seminary's new Arts and Innovation Fellowships are designed to encourage and promote the creativity and innovation necessary to reach the next generations of Christians. Up to 20, $5,000 awards – the cost of a semester of full-time study – will be awarded. The one-time fellowships are available to students accepted to and entering full-time study in the Master of Divinity, Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Music or Master of Theology degrees. Individuals currently in the admissions process may also apply.

Submissions may include Web sites, CDs, DVDs or other literary, artistic, creative or innovative approaches to ministry.

E-mail or send submissions, including application and demonstration of the creative or innovative approach for ministry, to:
