

SPECTRUM SCHOLARS

The Spectrum Scholars Program at Luther Seminary encourages full-time study in the Master of Divinity or the Master of Arts degree programs for students of color with promise for significant leadership in the public ministries of the church. Students of all denominational affiliation are eligible to apply. Awards are renewable, based on full-time status and satisfactory academic progress. Students must be admitted to Luther Seminary in order to receive an award.

Nominee's name _____

Address _____

Church Membership _____

Is this person entranced or enrolled in either of these processes?

ELCA candidacy process?	Yes _____	No _____
Supervision with another church body or congregation	Yes _____	No _____

Nominator _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

Signature _____ Date _____

Please attach a letter of nomination, which includes a description of your nominee's gifts, academic promise, and leadership experiences as a student of color. Please give specific examples of how this nominee has already shown a commitment to "apostolic mission in the 21st century world of many cultures and religions".

Mail nomination form and letter of recommendation by March 1 to:
Office of Admissions: Luther Seminary; 2481 Como Avenue; St. Paul, MN 55108.

For additional information: swilhelm001@luthersem.edu or 651-641-3422

Visit our website: www.luthersem.edu