

THE RICHARD WALLACE
SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM
(Formerly SPECTRUM SCHOLARS)

The Richard Wallace Scholarship Program (formerly Spectrum Scholars) at Luther Seminary encourages full-time study in the Master of Divinity or the Master of Arts degree programs for students of color or new immigrant communities of faith with promise for significant leadership in the public ministries of the church. ELCA and ecumenical students are eligible. Scholars receive full tuition and a stipend for books. Awards are renewable, based on full-time status and academic progress. Students must be admitted to Luther Seminary to receive an award.
