THE PROGRAM

WALKING WET

*Guest Speaker: The Rev. Catherine Malotky,

How do we manage our selves through the stages of life? How do we understand our callings as circumstances change? We are grounded in our baptisms, when we were publicly claimed as God's own. How do we wear that identity throughout life?

GUEST SPEAKER

A graduate of Concordia University, River Forest, Ill., Malotky began her professional career as a Lutheran high school teacher. She received a Master of Arts degree from Northwestern University in 1980 and a Master of Divinity degree from Luther Seminary in 1986. She has served congregations in inner-city Minneapolis and rural southwestern Minnesota. While sharing a pastoral call with her spouse, she served as an instructor in homiletics at Luther Seminary for nine years.
