Dear Friends in Christ,

Welcome to our annual Blessings event! It is a joy to be together to celebrate the blessings of the partnership between you, our donors, leading through your scholarship support, and you, our students and future church leaders. This evening will be a time for you to share a meal, tell stories, laugh and pray together.

I have received the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering.

Our theme this year is from Philippians 4:18b-19 [NRSV] “...now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. And my God will fully satisfy every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.”

Tonight we honor the fragrant offerings you have made to further the work of the Gospel in the world. Your gifts, of money, time, support, loyalty, are all critical to this work!

Donors, it is inspiring and humbling to see you respond, perhaps over hundreds of miles and sometimes through generations, to financially support students in their call to ministry. You can spend your financial resources in so many ways, and yet you choose to give here to Luther Seminary scholarships, moved by the promise of the gospel’s power to transform lives, and our world, for the better.

Students, it is also inspiring and humbling to watch you throughout your seminary journey. So many of you travel hundreds of miles, over roads or cyberspace, choosing the life of a student in order to prepare to be leaders in the church. Students, I watch what a blessing it is for you to be able to meet donors who choose to commit to leadership in the church through providing scholarships.

We are so thankful for all of you. We need students preparing to serve the church as pastors, musicians, chaplains, children and youth leaders, social workers and educators. We need donors who can step up as partners with future leaders of our church as they prepare for their ministry.

Thank you to our students for courageously saying “Yes!” to God’s call. We also deeply thank our donors for responding to God’s call by generously supporting scholarships, thereby lessening the financial burden our students face in accessing a seminary education. Together, you are enabling the financial health of future church leaders, leaders who can be free to serve where the church most needs them.

God’s blessings to each of you as you continue to follow God’s call!

With gratitude,

Rick Foss
Interim President, Luther Seminary

We gather together tonight in celebration of this community of ministry. We are deeply grateful for the generosity you show through spiritual and financial gifts in support of the students of Luther Seminary!

Preparing excellent leaders for the 21st century requires significant financial investment both for students and for Luther Seminary. Our students expect to pay their fair share as they prepare for leadership in the church, but they cannot do it alone. With your help, we are building financial support that makes a seminary education possible for all students responding to God’s call.

Each one of the seminary’s students comes with a unique story of their calling to serve God and the church. None of these students respond to this vocation for financial gain, but they do need to tend to their own financial well-being. Soon they will be sent out to serve congregations like yours and in hundreds of other settings. The church needs strong leaders who can move to where there are needs—a rural congregation, an inner-city community or a new church plant—without worrying about whether they will be able to sustain their current financial health and service the debt they incurred preparing for their callings. Improving financial aid attracts the best possible leaders and allows them to graduate ready to serve, financially stable and well. Your partnership makes this possible.

Thanks to your generosity, Luther Seminary awarded $2.6 million in financial aid this year. These awards come from gifts to Luther Seminary’s Sustaining Fund, gifts for current or endowed scholarships and yearly distributions from the endowment.

Our deepest thanks for your generosity and commitment to our students as they prepare to serve in God’s world!

Thomas L. Jolivette
Vice President, Seminary Relations
Executive Director of the Luther Seminary Foundation

The tradition of daily prayer is a reflection of our calling as Christians to continue worship beyond Sunday into each day. We have each been called through our baptismal vocations to the ministry of prayer. Prayer is not only formal words and worship, but is also our service, the ministries we do beyond church walls to which we have been called. Evening prayer, especially, invites us to this broader perspective.

Services of prayer in the evening with the community (along with prayer in the morning) are common in many faith traditions. As Christians, we particularly remember Christ’s passage through death to resurrection. We draw on the biblical image of light that scatters the darkness and see, in the candlelight, the promise of dawn, new life and resurrection.

Traditionally, song has been important to the worshipping community, and so evening prayer, or “vespers,” includes the singing of psalms, in addition to prayer, and reading and reflecting on Scripture.

Holden Evening Prayer was written by Marty Haugen in 1985-1986 while he was the musician-in-residence at Holden Village, a Lutheran retreat center in Washington. Haugen grew up a Lutheran and has written and published many hymns and liturgies that have enriched the church’s worship.

“This setting for Vespers,” Haugen wrote, “was created for the Holden Village Community in an attempt to provide a resource for worship that utilizes contemporary musical forms and sensitivity to contemporary language, especially in regard to inclusive images for people and for God” (“Holden Village Voice,” Winter 2012, page 6). Many would attest that this liturgy is beloved by congregations well beyond the Holden community and now, 26 years later, it continues to move those who sing it into a deeper experience of God.

You are welcome to keep the copy of the service you receive tonight. It is our gift to you.
