

Join us for spring Lay School classes!

Are you interested in learning more about theology, church history, culture and the Bible? Luther Seminary's Lay School of Theology is a program of informal, non-credit classes taught by seminary professors, staff and guest lecturers for people who want to learn more about matters relating to their Christian faith and life. We are offering some exciting classes this spring!

Mondays, March 20-April 17 at Luther Seminary

Midway in My Life's Journey: Dante as a Guide to Life

Instructor: Gracia Grindal, Professor Emeritus of Rhetoric

The Emergence of Elderhood: Presence, Purpose and Power in Life's Last Third

Instructor: Roland Martinson, Professor Emeritus of Children, Youth and Family Ministry

Mondays, April 17, 24 and May 1

at St. Andrew Lutheran Church, Eden Prairie, Minn.

Lutherans and the Word of God

Instructor: Rolf Jacobson, Professor of Old Testament, Luther Seminary

If you have a group who would like to attend but is unable to make the commute, you can still take advantage of the Stewardship Through the Back Door course, which will also be available online as a webcast. We hope to see you in the spring!
