luke-acts, possessions, and the christian life setting the scene
interacting with the powerless

source: http://www.flickr.com/photos/opendemocracy/660469007/interacting with the powerful complex instructions

source: http://www.flickr.com/photos/agrinberg/2930180021/
a model for all?
“to proclaim the year of the lord’s favor”

- Luke 4:19
What aspects of our current consumerist culture make it difficult to comprehend Luke’s vision?

Read Luke 15 as a group. What economic tensions do you discover there? Where is God in these parables?

What exegetical principles have you found useful in your ministry? That is, how do you read the Gospels in fruitful ways when it comes to issues of stewardship? How do you best preach and teach these texts and issues?